NEVER GIVE UP

Fight to make sense of a problem. Think about the things you know. Ponder what a solution might look like. Compare this problem to those you solved in the past. If it seems too hard, make up a simpler version. Can you solve that one? If one approach doesn’t work, try something else. When you get an answer, ask yourself, “Does it truly make sense?”